

THE WHITE HORSE INN

COMPTON BASSETT

Burns Night Specials

25th - 27th

Starter

Cullen Skink

Cullen Skink is a thick, traditional Scottish soup made of smoked haddock, potatoes and onions. It's a local specialty at many places including at the Rockpool Café in the town of Cullen in Moray, on the north-east coast

Main

Haggis, Neeps & Tatties

When you think of Scottish food, haggis always comes to mind. One of our most traditional and famous dishes is haggis, neeps and tatties, (turnips and potatoes). A delicious combination of meat, oatmeal, onions, salt and spices

Dessert

Cranachan

This traditional Scottish dessert was originally a celebration of harvest, following the raspberry season in June. This dessert includes cream and fresh raspberries served up with Scottish oats and whisky
